ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 20th March, 2007)

This Court while entertaining the writ petition No. 6600 of 2005 by its order dated 02.01.2006 had passed the following orders:

> "In view of the above, it is directed that if the petitioner is not relieved he may be allowed to continue till the representation is decided. It is made clear that if the petitioner has already been relieved, this order will not entitle the petitioner to rejoin at the earlier place of posting."

(2) Alleging that the respondents had disobeyed the interim order passed by this Court, the complainant is before me in this contempt petition.

(3) Along with the contempt petition the petitioner has produced a copy of the order passed by the respondents wherein it is clearly mentioned that the petitioner was relieved on 20.12.2005. The order passed by this Court was only that if the petitioner was not relieved, he be allowed to continued till the representation is decided. The documents produced by the petitioner show that prior to passing of the interim order he had already been relieved from the place where he was working.

(4) In view of the above, I am of the opinion that the respondents have not committed any act of contempt. Therefore, further proceedings in this contempt petition need not be continued. Accordingly, contempt proceedings are dropped. Ordered accordingly.
